at The Grove Theatre – Dunstable

Casual positions available – Excellent salary plus benefits

Everyone Theatres is currently seeking individuals who would like to work Front of House at The Grove Theatre. We are looking for enthusiastic and engaging individuals to create extraordinary experiences for our audiences, whilst always ensuring their safety and security.

The successful candidates will be responsible for assisting in the smooth running of the Front of House areas when the Theatre is in performance mode, whether that's checking and scanning tickets, selling ice creams and merchandise, serving drinks on the bar or ushering inside the auditorium.

We need a Theatre Front of House Assistant who will...

- Be outgoing, friendly and be able to assist with all our customers' needs
- Scan tickets efficiently and accurately to ensure that only valid tickets are admitted
- Monitor the safety of patrons during a show and swiftly and effectively communicate any problems to the Duty Manager
- Be accurate with orders and taking payments
- Be organised, methodical and capable of working calmly under pressure
- Demonstrate a proactive approach to working with a team
- Have excellent communication skills with patrons and other team members
- Be able to work a variety of shifts including weekends and evenings

Full training is provided across all areas of Front of House
